

AWESOME SRI LANKA

8 Days / 7 Nights

Validity - 01 Apr'22 - 10 Dec'22

AWESOME SRI LANKA

VISITING: WILPATTU, MANNAR, JAFFNA, DELFT ISLAND, ANURADHAPURA, GAL OYA, ELLA, SINHARAJA

DAY 01: ARRIVE COLOMBO

FLIGHT (NOT INCLUDED)

After clearing Customs and Immigration, and collecting your baggage, please look for our local representative holding a placard in your name to assist and transfer you to the camp in Wilpattu. (160 kms / 3 hrs)

Wilpattu, located on the northwest coast lowland dry zone of Sri Lanka. The unique feature of this park is the existence of "Willus" (natural lakes) - natural, sand-rimmed water basins or depressions that fill with rainwater.

On arrival you will settle into your safari camp, relax and recover from any jet lag.

Afternoon, you will be taken on a safari tour of the Wilpattu National Park in a private open-air jeep. Wilpattu has re-opened after the end of the civil war and offers visitors a wonderful nature experience with fewer visitors than Yala. After being hit during the war, the wildlife numbers are now on the rise again so keep your eyes peeled for elephants, deer, wild boar, wild buffaloes, monkeys, sloth bears, crocodiles and leopards, as well as a huge variety of exciting bird and reptile life.

(Your safari will be by a private jeep and accompanied by a local naturalist on availability. Conditions of the tracks around the park differ, depending on the time of year, but generally you should expect them to be bumpy and dusty.)

Overnight: Big Game Camp Wilpattu (Tent)

Meals: Dinner

Early breakfast at the hotel.

Check out of the hotel and proceed on drive for Mannar Island, beautifully secluded peninsula which is also famous for being a great bird-watching destination. The Mannar District has been famous for pearl fishing since the early part of the 19th century and had played an integral part of Sri Lanka's colonial history.

On reaching Mannar, visit Mannar Fort, built by the Portuguese but subsequently occupied by the Dutch and the British; It is a square-shaped fort with four bastions and is located next to the new bridge that connects the mainland with the Mannar Island. The remains of what looks to be a church can be found within the fort's walls, as well as two watchtowers that stand at its corners.

After sightseeing, proceed on your drive north to Jaffna. (approx.. 120 kms/2 ½ hrs)
Jaffna - far and away the largest town in northern Sri Lanka, connected to the mainland by a lagoon causeway. As a result of a 30 years' war, Jaffna was left untouched by modernization and so much of the town is time-locked in the 50's, from the buildings to the old Morris Minor cars and there is much to discover and many well-kept beaches, making it perfect for those in search of sand and sun with a difference. Check in to the hotel.

Later, take a brief city tour starting with a drive through the city centre to view Jaffna Library, which was burnt down on the night of the 31st May 1981, the Dutch Fort which was initially built by the Portuguese in 1619 and then re-built and expanded by the Dutch during the second half of the 17th & 18th centuries. You will also see the Nallur Kandaswamy Kovil which is one of the most important Hindu temples in Sri Lanka. Originally founded in 948AD, the present building dates back to the 18th Century.

Overnight: Fox Resort (Deluxe Room)

Meals: Breakfast, dinner

DAY 03: JAFFNA / DELFT ISLAND / JAFFNA

Rise early and leave the hotel with a packed breakfast for Kurikadduvan jetty to embark on the ferry to Delft Island.

Locally-hired shared transport will take you on an excursion around the island. Roots of the Dutch era are still clearly visible with scattered ruins of the Dutch Fort and Court House located in the grounds of Delft Hospital. On the tour you will also see a giant hollow 'baobab tree' big enough for about five people to stand comfortably in its cavity and the old stables of the Dutch era.

Other sites include ancient Buddhist ruins at one end of the island and to the west of the island temple ruins that were designed in South Indian Chola style. You can also see a pigeon house designed by the Portuguese, when pigeons were used as a mode of communication, and groups of wild ponies as you travel around.

After the sightseeing you can have lunch at the island's hotel (on direct payment basis) before making your way back to Jaffna on the ferry.

(Preventative travel sickness tablets are recommended if you are not a good sailor. Remember to take sunglasses, sun hat/umbrella and good sun screen protection.)

Upon completion, embark on the ferry back to the main land and reach the hotel.

Overnight: Fox Resort (Deluxe Room)

Meals: Breakfast, dinner

DAY 04: JAFFNA / ANURADHAPURA – DRIVE (200 KMS / 4 HRS)

Early breakfast at the hotel.

Pick up from the hotel lobby and proceed to Anuradhapura, founded in the 04th century B.C a UNESCO World Heritage site since 1982. It was the most extensive and significant of the Sri Lankan royal capitals, but its extent of its history since its collapse, make it more difficult to understand than younger, shorter-lived Polonnaruwa.

Explore the sacred ancient city of Anuradhapura. It has the largest number of ancient monuments of the great Sinhala civilization which flourished in this region and many ancient monuments still stand tall, and have become a fascinating place for site seeing. You will see some of the most famous as well as the tallest Stupa Ruwanwelisaya and the Ruins of ancient royal palaces. Another amazing site would be the 'Sri Maha

Bodhi' or the sacred Bo tree which is over 2200 years old grown from a branch of the very tree under which "The Buddha" attained enlightenment – the oldest historically documented tree in the world.

(Please dress appropriately when visiting Anuradhapura ruins, with shoulders and knees covered. Have an extra pair of socks to wear to prevent from the ground heat since you have to walk barefoot.)

Proceed on your drive to Anuradhapura. Arrive and check into the hotel.
Rest of the day at leisure.

Overnight: Forest Rock Garden Hotel (Deluxe Room)

Meals: Breakfast, dinner

DAY 05: ANURADHAPURA / GAL OYA – DRIVE (250 KMS / 5 HRS)

Early breakfast at the hotel.

Pick up from the hotel lobby and proceed on your drive for Gal Oya, one of Sri Lanka's most remote and least visited wilderness areas. Arrive and check into the hotel.

Late afternoon you will be taken on a jeep ride into the forgotten Nilgala section of the park, once the protectorate of ancient royalty for the abundant medicinal plants and endemic birdlife unique to this ecosystem. Although shy and sometimes hard to spot, the park hosts most of the animals found on the island, some of the more likely species to look out for include herds of elephants, four species of deer as well as many bird species. You may also opt for the hike to the makara river mouth with one of the expert naturalists, to further experience the jungle and for the chance of seeing wildlife on foot.

Later, join one of the resident naturalists for a night walk in the forests surrounding the lodge, and have a chance to see some of the nocturnal neighbours as they emerge from their daily resting spots. Use a torch to spot eyes peering back at you that could belong to a number of different animals including amphibians, reptiles, mammals and birds. One of the highlights is a chance to spot the bizarre looking Frog Mouth bird or if you are really lucky the endangered thick-tailed Pangolin.

Overnight: Gal Oya Lodge (Bungalow)

Meals: Breakfast, dinner

DAY 06: GAY OYA / ELLA / SINHARAJA – DRIVE

Breakfast at the hotel.

Pick up from the hotel lobby and proceed on your drive to Ella. Visit Little Adam's Peak this is Ella's best known tourist attraction, aptly named since it has a similar shape to Adam's Peak, which is Sri Lanka's holy mountain. It is a much shorter and easier climb to the top of the 1141 meter peak. The walk is enjoyable and clearly marked as you meander through tea plantations and take in breathtaking views of Ella Rock, Ravana Falls and the endless valley below. Visit the Nine Arches Bridge. It is one of the best examples of British railway constructions when Ceylon was a colony of the British Empire. The surrounding area has seen a steady increase of tourism due to the bridge's architectural ingenuity and the profuse greenery in the nearby hillsides. Visit the Ravana Falls.

After the visit, leave for Sinharaja (Lion King) rainforests, occupying a broad ridge at the heart of the island's wet zone. On most days the jungle is shrouded by copious rain clouds, which replenish its deep soils and balance water resources for much of southwestern Sri Lanka. Recognizing its importance to the island's ecosystem, Unesco declared the Sinharaja Forest Reserve a World Heritage Site in 1989. Arrive Sinharaja, check into the hotel.

Rest of the day at leisure.

Overnight: Rainforest Eco Lodge (Lodge)

Meals: Breakfast, dinner

DAY 07: SINHARAJA

Early morning enjoy a Bird Watching and Butterfly Observation Trail. Bird watching is particularly interesting as it is home to 95% of the endemic birds of Sri Lanka. This is the easiest way to enjoy great outdoors here, rich biodiversity and lovely well - kept scenery, along the already established roadway. The trail starts from a disturbed vegetation with pioneering species and penetrates into an undisturbed secondary tropical sub-montane rain forest. Gradually sloping terrain at the beginning of the trail will make it an easy track, which a guest of any age group could make without much exertion.

Return to the hotel for breakfast.

After breakfast take a trek through the quaint paths of Sinharaja where placid undergrowth lie in wait for the appreciation of all who wish to indulge in an adventure to the tranquil wilderness of Sri Lanka's world renowned rainforest. It is a treasure trove of endemic species including trees, insects, amphibians, reptiles, birds and mammals. Because of the dense vegetation wildlife is not as easily seen as at dry zone national parks. Experience the real beauty of nature and gain the opportunity of a lifetime to catch a glimpse of rare flora and fauna in Sri Lanka. Explore the lush green forest and marvel at the mystery that surrounds the jungles. The experienced and well trained guides will take you through challenging trails and educate you on the many endemic species, flora and fauna that call Sinharaja home.

Evening enjoy a nature trail within the Arboretum. The trail starts with a stroll through the tea plantation; a moderately steep easy walk. The entrance to the arboretum is marked with an attractive natural water feature with a visitor shelter located nearby. The trail exits from the forest patch to the opposite side to that of the entry and continues through the tea plantation on a well-established road station. This arrangement allows visitors a relaxed walk after somewhat strenuous forest section, offering an ideal cool down procedure.

Overnight: Rainforest Eco Lodge (Lodge)

11. FLIGHTS AND CARRIERS:

Customers acknowledge and accept the following

Changes: Flights offered by Tourcan Vacations are conducted in accordance with the applicable tariffs of the air carrier and pursuant to regulations set out by the Canadian Transportation Agency. All such flights and rates are also subject to approval by the relevant government authorities. Consolidations and changes in the published schedule, aircraft type, days of operation, air carrier providing air transportation and flight itinerary may be undertaken at any time and without prior notice, in accordance with the air carrier's tariffs.

Fares and Names: Fares and taxes may increase between the time of quoting, booking and tickets being issued.

The fares quoted are subject to class availability and may have booking conditions attached.

Tickets must reflect the passengers name as shown in their passport. If names are not reflected correctly boarding may be denied.

Schedule Check and Connecting Flights: Flight schedules are subject to change without notice. Customers having purchased air only must reconfirm their return flight within 24 to 72 hours prior to the scheduled take-off time. Tourcan Vacations undertakes to notify customers reasonably in advance through means it deems appropriate of any schedule changes resulting in the advancement or delay of the flight departure times or in case of cancellation of a flight. Whenever customers book connecting flights, they must allow sufficient time to make their connection. No control can be exercised over air carriers to guarantee flight schedules, which may be altered or affected by various circumstances. Tourcan Vacations will not be liable for any change of schedule or a missed flight connection, including any additional fees incurred and special, incidental or consequential damages (including the carriage of baggage) arising from the foregoing, whether or not it had the knowledge that such additional fees or damages might be incurred.

Airport check-in: It is recommended that customers arrive at the airport check-in counter at least 3 hours prior to departure. Failing this, their reservation may be cancelled and their seats assigned to other customers, with no right of recourse.

Seat assignment: unless already pre-assigned, staff at the air carrier's check-in counter conducts aircraft seating.

Other applicable conditions: Air transportation is subject to all applicable government regulations and is governed by the Montreal Convention, or the Warsaw Convention as the case may be, the applicable tariffs of the air carrier as well as the conditions of contract appearing on the airline ticket. Any amendments or changes to the applicable air carrier's general terms and conditions of carriage once filed with and approved by federal regulatory authorities, are not subject to additional public notice and are legally binding.

Refusal to transport: Removal of passengers: Tourcan Vacations shall not be liable for refusal by itself or the air carrier to transport a passenger nor for the cancellation of a reserved space or removal of a passenger due to, but not limited to, safety reasons, to prevent the violation of any applicable laws of any country or to prevent any hazard or risk to such passenger, to any other person or property, or to the flight.

12. VALIDITY OF TICKETS: Tickets are made out in the name of the customer and are not transferable. Tickets are valid only on the dates and flights indicated. Unused portions of tickets may not be used for travel on other flights and are not subject to refund at any time.

13. BAGGAGE:

Limits: Air carriers have individual rules and regulations with respect to baggage weight, size and number. Customers must consult with the travel agent for applicable restrictions.

Liability: The provisions of the Montreal Convention, or the Warsaw Convention as the case may be, the applicable tariffs of the air carrier, as well as the notice appearing on the passenger ticket and baggage check, govern the loss of and damage to baggage and establish the limits of air carrier's liability. Baggage lost or damaged while boarding or disembarking a ship must be reported to the Purser's office prior to the ship's departure from port or prior to leaving the local customs area. Passengers' baggage and property are transported, stored and handled at owner's risk at all times.

14. TRAVEL DOCUMENTS: It is the full responsibility of customers to obtain at their own expense all necessary travel documents required by all relevant government authorities, including all ports of call, and to comply with the laws thereof. Passports will be required for all air and sea travel to or from all destinations and may have to be valid for six months beyond the date of the expected return to Canada. Canadian Citizens born in certain countries may require a visa in addition to a valid passport. A permanent resident card will be required for permanent residents/landed immigrants who are not Canadian citizens. One (1) parent traveling with a child under age 18 may have to obtain a notarized letter of consent signed by the parent not traveling. Customers are responsible for checking which documents are required, and then make certain that they have the necessary documents in hand prior to departure. The carrier or relevant authorities, without further recourse or the possibility of a refund, may deny customers boarding privileges failing to provide the required documents. Entry to another country may also be refused even if the required information and travel documents are complete. No refund or replacement will be given for lost or stolen travel documents. Tourcan Vacations shall not be liable for any aid or information given by its employees or the travel agent in connection with obtaining any necessary travel documents or complying with any laws, whether given orally, in writing or otherwise, or for the consequences suffered by any customer resulting from his/her failure to obtain such documents or to comply with such laws.

15. CUSTOMER ADVISORY: Some events are part of normal unpleasant occurrences, which can happen when traveling abroad. The customer realizes this, solely assumes the consequences thereof and agrees that Tourcan Vacations cannot be held responsible for any damages owing to such occurrences.

Living Standards: Customers are asked to bear in mind and accept that living standards and practices at the destination, and the conditions there with respect to the provision of utilities, services and accommodations, may differ from those found in Canada.

Service disruptions: Some services including water, electricity, air-conditioning, security, sanitary conditions, pools, food, beverages and other services or benefits may be suspended or interrupted partially or completely during the customer's stay. Likewise, depending on the occupancy rate of hotels, à la Carte dining may be replaced by buffet or vice-versa.

Food, water and beverages: The food, water and beverages may not be up to North-American standards. Accordingly, customers assume sole responsibility for any illness suffered while abroad or upon return owing to the quality of the food, water and beverages.

16. ROOM ALLOCATION: Hoteliers are solely responsible for room allocation, in accordance with the category reserved by customers. Should customers choose to alter their room category upon arrival at destination (upon availability), they must make their own arrangements with the hotelier and assume all additional fees levied by them.

17. CHECK-IN AND CHECK-OUT CONDITIONS: Customers acknowledge and accept that hoteliers, in accordance with international standards, have specific check-in times, usually from 3 PM and check out by noon on the scheduled day of departure or by noon on the day immediately preceding a late night departure.

18. CUSTOMERS REQUIRING ASSISTANCE AND CARE WHILE TRAVELLING:

All customers requiring special care, assistance, attention or treatment must advise Tourcan Vacations and the air carrier of any and all specific needs at the time of booking, in order to arrange air transportation, hotel and tour accommodations.

19. CHANGES TO TRAVEL SERVICES:

If Travel Services are no longer available prior to the departure date or subsequent to arrival at destination, Tourcan Vacations reserves the right to substitute them for comparable goods or Travel Services, or, alternatively, to cancel them.

Changes to itinerary: Tourcan Vacations and the participating tour operator reserves the right to cancel, alter or re-schedule any timing, to omit one or more stops, to substitute alternative itineraries or to otherwise amend the content of the tour with or without prior notice to the passenger.

20. CUSTOMER RESPONSIBILITY:

Health: Customers, whose physical condition so requires, must ensure that they have a sufficient quantity of any required medication with them, and that they carry such medication in their hand baggage at all times. Customers must also consult competent medical authorities prior to departure about preventive medical measure as regards to the countries to be visited.

Activities: Tourcan Vacations cannot be held responsible for any accident or mishap occurring at the destination during the practice of activities in which the customers participate of their own free will and initiative.

21. FORCE MAJEURE: Tourcan Vacations shall not be liable for failure in the performance of any of its obligations, including without limitation, for any loss or damage resulting from any delay, cancellation, loss of personal belongings, illness, bodily injury, accident, death, deterioration of Travel Services, inconvenience, loss of enjoyment, disappointment or frustration, either mental or physical, due to:

* An Act of God or Force Majeure;

* A war, revolution, insurrection, riot, blockage or any other unlawful act against public order or authority, including an act of terrorism or threat thereof;

* Fire, flood, explosion, earthquake, epidemics, quarantine, storm, lightning, tornado or adverse weather conditions generally;

* Accident to or failure of an aircraft or equipment used in connection therewith, loss of or hijacking of an aircraft, or any shortage of or inability to provide labor, fuel or facilities;

* Any strike, lock-out, labor dispute or other industrial disturbance whether involving Tourcan Vacations' employees, the employees of its service providers or others upon whom Tourcan Vacations relies;

* Any government order, regulation, action or inaction or any failure to obtain the approval of a government authority having jurisdiction in the circumstances as may be required to the conduct of operations hereunder or any government or legal restraint upon such operation;

* Others upon whom Tourcan Vacations relies for the performance of the whole or any part of any Travel Services hereunder;

* Any other causes beyond the reasonable control of Tourcan Vacations and any other event not reasonably to be foreseen, anticipated or predicted, whether actual, threatened or reported, which may interfere with the operations of Tourcan Vacations or of its service providers.

22. EXCLUSION OF LIABILITY: Tourcan Vacations makes arrangements with air carriers, hotels, transfer operators and other independent parties to provide customers with Travel Services they purchase. Although Tourcan Vacations takes great care in selecting these service providers, it does not have any control over them and cannot be held responsible for their omissions, fault or negligence, or that of their employees, nor for any loss or damages suffered as a result thereof. Travel Services provided are subject to the conditions imposed by the service providers and their liability is limited by their tariffs, conditions of carriage, tickets, vouchers, international conventions and agreements.

23. ACTIVITIES NOT INCLUDED: Tourcan Vacations shall not be liable for the quality or safety of activities (such as excursions, optional tours, little extras and others) available at the destination that customers may wish to participate in and which are not included in the package, nor for any other representation made by the operator of any such activities. Any written or oral contract for all such activities shall be deemed to be made between customers and the operator of such activities and shall be undertaken at the customers' own risk of loss, damage or injury. Tourcan Vacations shall not be liable in any manner for any complaints or claims that may arise as a result of participation in any such activities which are offered by third parties over whom Tourcan Vacations has no control.

24. CONFIDENTIALITY: Tourcan Vacations strictly complies with principles of confidentiality with respect to customers' personal information, including in accordance with the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act.

25. LAWS: The laws of the province in which the Canadian gateway city is located govern this agreement. Any legal action instituted against Tourcan Vacations must be heard before the courts of this province. For the purposes of any such proceedings, the parties hereby agree to elect domicile in the judicial district of the Canadian gateway city in question. The voiding of one or other of the clauses hereto shall neither annul nor invalidate this agreement, which is known as the Terms and Conditions. Tourcan Vacations is registered as a wholesaler in Ontario.
