

THAILAND LAND OF A MILLION SMILES

12 Days

AIR CANADA'S THAILAND

Air Canada announced the expansion of its international network with the addition of Bangkok, Thailand, the carrier's first non-stop service to South-East Asia. Air Canada's seasonal service to Bangkok will operate from its trans-Pacific hub at Vancouver International Airport.

"We are extremely pleased to be launching our first non-stop service to South-East Asia this winter, the only one between North America and Thailand. Thailand is a popular leisure destination for Canadians and this new service will give Aeroplan members exciting opportunities to both earn and redeem their points. For further convenience, our Bangkok flights will connect to our extensive domestic and trans-border network giving customers added seamlessness and choice when travelling," said Mark Galardo, Senior Vice President, Network Planning and Revenue Management, at Air Canada.

Tourcan Vacations is pleased to partner with Air Canada in a 12-day Thailand program. Travelers can extend their stay in Thailand or travel to other countries in South-East Asia before or after their visit to Thailand.

Day 04: Chiang Mai

After breakfast, depart for Doi Suthep Temple.

Doi Suthep Temple is a place of worship dating back to the year of 1383 when the first pagoda was built. It is an important pilgrimage spot for devotion and is a sacred site to many Thai people and foreigners. Visitors can climb 309 steps to reach the stupa on the hilltop. Moreover, the temple's terrace is surrounded by superb scenery. A variety of religious outreach programs can be enjoyed, which also includes visiting Hmong Hill Tribe Village, a village of ethnic groups and colorful costumes and traditions. You will be able to discover their culture and history at the museum.

Suggested dress attire: Casual & comfortable leisure wear but please avoid wearing shorts or sleeveless shirts since we will be visiting one of Chiang Mai's most sacred temple; please wear footwear that is easy to slip on/off.

Lunch at a local restaurant where you can try Khao Soy, the Northern Thai curry noodle soup which is was recently ranked as the number one best soup in the world 2022 by Taste Atlas.

This afternoon, experience Old Town Chiang Mai by trishaw and visit nearby temple. This is the best way to explore the Old Town. We start off at the Warorod and Flower Market and move along the Tah Pae and pass Tah Pae Gate; pass the small lanes to explore the residential area and stop at Wat Phra Singh.
